

Loudoun County Strategy for Watershed Management Solutions (SWMS)

Agenda

February 22-23, 2006
Best Western Hotel
(703) 777-9400
726 East Market Street, Leesburg, VA

Wednesday, February 22nd

12:00 Lunch Provided

1:00 SWMS Team Meeting Opening

- Welcome
- Introductions
- SWMS process
- SWMS Protocols & Guidelines

2:00 Developing a Strategy for Watershed Planning: Concerns, Opportunities, Ideas

- Summary of interview findings
- Questions, additional concerns, opportunities

3:00 Break

Refreshments

3:20 Developing a Strategy for Watershed Planning (continued): Concerns, Opportunities, Ideas

- Discussion continued: questions, additional concerns, opportunities

4:00 The Watershed Today: current activities and knowledge

- Inventory of activities
- Defining our watershed (mapping), presentation by County staff

5:00 Adjourn

(Continued on next page)

Thursday, February 23rd

9:00 Welcome New SWMS Team Members; Brief Recap of Wednesday

The Watershed Today: current activities and knowledge (continued)

- (15) The state of Loudoun's streams, presentation by Loudoun Watershed Watch (LWW)
- (15) Impaired streams (TMDLs): presentation by the Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ)
- (15) Protecting Loudoun's drinking water, presentation by the Loudoun County Sanitation Authority
- (15) Watershed protection and land conservation: presentation by Piedmont Environmental Council
- (15) LCSA Goose Creek Source Water Protection, presentation by LCSA
- (15) Discussion of inventory and current activities

10:30 Break

refreshments

11:00 Overview of Watershed Planning

- Overview of watershed planning (Institute for Environmental Negotiation - UVA)
- Two models for watershed planning (IEN)
- Discussion

11:50 Creating a Common Vision for Loudoun's Watershed Plan

- Key components for a common vision

12:15 Lunch

1:15 Creating a Common Vision for Loudoun's Watershed Plan (continued)

- Individual and small group work on common vision
- Sharing ideas
- Discussion, questions, additions, revisions

3:00 Break

3:20 Creating a Common Vision for Loudoun's Watershed Plan (continued)

- Identifying issues where there is preliminary agreement; identifying issues that will need more discussion/information/work.

4:15 Review Progress, Agenda for Next Meeting, Participant Commitments and "Homework Assignments" (materials/ inventory)

4:30 Adjourn

SWMS Project Team

County Contacts: Kelly Baty, 703-771-5390, wbaty@loudoun.gov; Glen Rubis 703 777-0222, grubis@loudoun.gov, and Bruce McGranahan, 703 737-8511 bmcgrana@loudoun.gov

SWMS Facilitation Team:

Tanya Denckla Cobb, Senior Associate, IEN, 434- 924-1855, tanyadc@virginia.edu
Christine Gyovai, Associate, IEN, 434-982-6464, christineg@virginia.edu
Jason Espie, Graduate Associate, IEN, 434-924-0285, jespie@virginia.edu